La Rasina Brunello 2006: "La Rasina offers a beautifully dark and austere expression of Brunello with almost exaggerated intensity. The wine is dense, extracted and velvety with smooth cherry and vanilla backed by a firm tannic backbone." –ML #42 Top 100 Cellar Selections of 2011 Wine Enthusiast

La Rasina Brunello 2008: "What a pleasure it is to taste La Rasina's 2008 Brunello di Montalcino... One of the richer, more voluptuous wines of the vintage, the 2008 saturates the palate with expressive dark fruit, mocha, espresso, violets and cloves. As always, the style here is one that favors textural richness and depth, yet all the elements are in gorgeous balance. This generous, inviting Brunello is superb today and should continue to drink well for at least a handful of years. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2020." Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate

La Rasina Brunello di Montalcino 2010 "La Rasina's 2010 Brunello di Montalcino is one of the darker, racier wines of the dark. Black cherries, plums, mocha, spices, new oak, new leather and licorice are all laced together in a ripe, voluptuous Brunello loaded with near term appeal. Forward and beautifully layered in the glass, the 2010 is already quite delicious. This is a terrific vintage for La Rasina, with plenty of the estate's signatures on full display." – Antonio Galloni, Vinous

La Rasina Il Divasco Brunello di Montalcino Riserva 2006: "La Rasina has really hit a winning formula with Il Divasco. This wine is bold and opulent with lavish layers of bright fruit, spice, cola and leather. It is one of those wines that seems to have melted chocolate fudge at its core with a round, soft mouthfeel at the backend. Intensity and complexity are both there." –ML Wine Enthusiast

La Rasina Rosso di Montalcino 2012: 90 (JS)

Aromas of ripe fruit, walnut and smoked meat follow through to a full body, with velvety tannins and a wet earth, mushroom and berry aftertaste
